Chairman's Notes:

Most Americans know the National Anthem by heart. But how many of us knew there were 4 stanzas to this great song. Even though it is written in archaic language—really listen to the words and you will know that the second stanza of the National Anthem really says it all: It gave me 'goose bumps' on my arms.....

On the shore, dimly seen thro' the mist of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?

Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream
'Tis the star-spangled banner. Oh! long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

In 1812, America was besieged by the British, an enemy determined not to lose their control of us. Friends we are besieged again - here is 2010, by an enemy determined to gain control over our very being. The present administration and government at large are determined to take away as many freedoms as they can so they can control us. WE MUST NOT let this happen. This year and 2010 our voting responsibilities are crucial to returning America to the great nation, (ONE UNDER GOD) with liberty and justice for all, that it should be.

I have great faith that we can do this. “What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within each of us”. Life is all about choices and, Countrymen, we must make the right choice in electing (or re-electing) our, repeat OUR, representatives.

“Please invite your friends, family, and co-workers to attend our meetings, and each of us must get involved. We, the people, need to know what's going on and how we can control the government and not the other way around.
